

GLEN DOHERTY MEMORIAL 5K/10K ROAD RACE

SEPTEMBER 23, 2018 • 12PM START • 109 SKILLINGS RD - WINCHESTER, MA

{SPONSORSHIP INFORMATION}

Thank you for considering sponsoring the GDMF road race. We appreciate your generosity. Below are the different sponsorship categories. Last year we had 1,100 registered runners, fans throughout the course and incredible TV/media support. We will extensively publicize all of our sponsors through the race documentation, the GDMF Facebook Page and website at www.glendohertyfoundation.org.

The Glen Doherty Memorial Foundation was founded in honor of Glen Doherty, who was one of the four Americans killed in the attack in Benghazi, Libya on September 12, 2012. Our mission is to help ease the transition from military life and work to that of a civilian by helping fund educational costs for Special Operation individuals and their children. We do this knowing Glen's spirit will continue to touch us all. Your donations will help to give a scholarship to a member of the Special Operations community. We are a 501(c)(3) charity organization dedicated to honoring and preserving the memory of Glen Doherty and all those who have paid the ultimate sacrifice in defending our nation in the Global War on Terror.

MATT STOLPINSKI

Matt Stolpinski is a Massachusetts native and a 2008 graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy. While at the Naval Academy Matt twice achieved All-American honors as an NCAA Division I wrestler, and was honored to lead the team as captain his senior year. Upon graduation from the USNA and his commissioning as a Naval Officer, Matt successfully completed Basic Underwater Demolition / SEAL training in 2009 with BUD/S Class 273. Over the past nine years, Matt has held extensive combat, tactical, and strategic leadership positions within the U.S. Navy SEAL community, joining SEAL Team Four and Support Activity Team Two before earning assignment to Naval Special Warfare Development Group. Matt's experience varies from leading direct action combat missions to playing a critical role in the creation of Development Group's Innovation Squadron, and includes deployments to Iraq, Afghanistan, and various other locations within the AFRICOM and CENTCOM theaters. Upon transitioning from active duty in 2018, Matt will continue to serve in the SEAL Reserves while attending the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth College, focusing on a career in Management Consulting or Private Equity. In his free time Matt enjoys spending time outdoors with his wife, Kara, and their rambunctious golden retriever.

MICHAEL DALEY

Michael Daley is a native of Silver Spring, Maryland. He's currently serving active duty in the United States Navy as a Special Warfare Chief Petty Officer with over 23 years of experience. Before joining Navy Special Warfare, he served as a Quartermaster/Signalman in the fleet for 7 years. First duty station was in Norfolk, Virginia on the USS-ELROD (FFG-55). His next duty station would be Whidbey Island Air Station in Washington State. During this time, he would qualify for BUD/s training in Coronado, CA. After passing qualification in 2005, he served on several platoons in Seal Team Three, would then move on to become a Diving instructor, and later rejoin the community at Seal Team Seven. He's now stationed at the parent command Naval Special Warfare Group ONE. He holds a Bachelor's degree in Organizational Leadership from University of Charleston and is currently enrolled in a Masters of business for Veterans (MBV) at the University of Southern California. Michael and his wife Dana live in San Diego, California and have one son.

RICHARD RASCO

Richard Rasco is a Naval Officer and US Navy SEAL with 14 years of service and ten deployments spanning the Middle East and Africa. While in the Navy, Richard worked on numerous tactical and strategic operations in support of Operations Iraqi Freedom, Enduring Freedom, Inherent Resolve, and Overseas Contingency Operations. He is transitioning to a career in business by way of the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania and hopes to work in entrepreneurial acquisition, particularly in the technology sector where he is focused on cyber security. Richard is looking for opportunities to apply private sector solutions to some of the issues he encountered while in the service. Born in Miami, FL, Richard graduated from Belen Jesuit Preparatory School and attended the US Naval Academy. His military assignments include SEAL Team ONE, Special Boat Team TWENTY-TWO, and SEAL Team EIGHT. He is currently assigned to Naval Special Warfare Development Group, where he served as an Operations Officer, Troop Commander, and ultimately as a SEAL Squadron Executive Officer. Richard lives in Virginia Beach, Va with his wife, Lucy Bustamante Rasco, and four children, Reese (6), Alejandro (6), Carolina (3), and Nicolas (1). He will move to Philadelphia, PA this summer to begin Wharton.

STEPHEN GRAHAM

Steve grew up in Connecticut where, in his earlier years, football, baseball, and boating took up the majority of his free time. In 2009, he graduated from Tufts University with a B.A. in International Relations and a minor in Arabic. A four year participant in Navy ROTC while in college, he entered Naval Special Warfare's training pipeline after school and successfully graduated two years later. Over the last nine years, his overseas experiences in the Middle East and South America have cemented his passion to transform companies via servant leadership and good old-fashioned hard work. He is leaving the military to pursue his MBA at The Wharton School and is honored to be a recipient of a Glen Doherty Memorial Foundation scholarship. He and his wife Meghan, along with their newborn daughter Brittany, are excited to begin their new chapter in Philadelphia.
